Attached are three documents containing the results of examination of the reporting requirements dated December, 1987. The first document (single page) contains changes requested by the Counterterrorism Section, Intelligence Division. The second document represents changes requested by the Drug Section and the Organized Crime Section, Criminal Division. The third document represents a thorough redraft of the reporting requirement from both the Operational and Analytical Sections of the Intelligence Division.

In light of the dramatic changes in the world and the redefinition of the threat to national security, we appreciate the opportunity to participate in preparing revised reporting requirements. Assistance in this matter or questions may be addressed to Charles W. Dixon, Assistant Section Chief, Intelligence Division [Redacted]
